VOLUME XXXII

WINTER 2017

ISSUE I

Spring Training Time!

CCPOA of Iowa, Inc. would like to announce that your fellow association members have scheduled the 2017 editions of the Regional Spring Training Workshops around the state for your benefit. Thanks to Pocahontas, Marion and Black Hawk counties for hosting these great training opportunities.

Since these counties have put forth the effort to provide you with these additional in-service training credits, your show of support would be greatly appreciated by attending one of these sessions. AGENDAS for two of the workshops are included in this Newsletter, the agenda for Black Hawk County is still being finalized and will be posted later.

Check the agendas for registration information and fees – usually payable at the door. We look forward to seeing you at one of these gatherings.

Due to some logistical issues at Camp Dodge, the Executive Committee has moved the dates for the 32nd Annual Fall Training Workshop to October 10, 11 and 12, 2017. These dates are a Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The National Guard observes the Columbus Day Holiday on the 9th; consequently, no facilities would be available to use on that day, so the Firearms portion of the workshop will take place on Tuesday with the classroom portion to follow on Wednesday and Thursday. The Ramada has adjusted with us and once again will provide a block of rooms for CCPOA. Full details will be available in the August Newsletter.

WINTERFEST – The CCPOA Executive

Committee held their regular winter meeting on January 25th in Waterloo during the IACCBE Annual Winter Conference. President Nick Beeck (Plymouth) presided over the meeting. Discussion centered on regional spring training workshops, our 32nd Annual Fall Workshop and a lengthy discussion with Historian Tom Hazelton (IACCB) for under taking the transition of the remaining CCPOA infrastructure, files and responsibilities from Tom and delegated to the Executive Committee as outlined by the CCPOA Bylaws.
